Wouldn’t you wish for every physics student to know…

We have received funding from the National Science Foundation to carry out a program which will inform students and departments of this information, prepare students to act upon it, and much more...

The AIP Career Pathways Project